To whom it may concern,

I hereby wish to recommend Angie Bravo. Angie is currently enrolled in my AP English Literature and Composition course at Vidal M. Trevino School of Communication and Fine Arts.

Angie is an exceptionally driven and hardworking student who has demonstrated outstanding self-discipline, ingenuity, and determination through her intellectual ability, talent, and work ethic. During her years in high school, she has earned a 103.03 GPA and is ranked no. 4 out of 479 students at J.W. Nixon High School. Angie is involved in various clubs and organizations, and has earned numerous awards and accolades. She has been an active member in the CX debate team during her four years of high school and has been the captain for the last two years. As a result, she has qualified for the UIL state competition and is currently qualified for the TFA state competition. Furthermore, she is the president of JW Nixon's UIL Academics, and is the vice president of the Spanish National Honor Society. Angie is also an active member of the National Honor Society.

As a student, Angie has displayed a remarkable ability to write as well as speak eloquently and effectively. She is highly capable of not only writing prose that is grammatically and mechanically correct, but she is also capable of writing prose that is insightful, persuasive, clever, and expressive. It is apparent that she has boldly established her own writing voice and style. She is a perceptive, fierce and passionate writer. Moreover, she actively participates in class discussions. Her comments are always insightful and thought provoking.

Additionally, Angie has demonstrated great leadership qualities. She is a diligent student who is punctual and responsible. Aside from being a responsible and studious student, Angie is also respectful towards others and is able to work collaboratively with her peers.

Angie's drive to succeed and her abilities make her a worthy applicant. If you have any questions regarding Angie's character or achievements, please do not hesitate to contact me by email at amcruz-vidaurri@laredoisd.org

Sincerely,

Alicia Cruz-Vidaaurri
